

Olivia Cornejo

Olivia Cornejo is currently Director of Viña de Lestonnac Retreat Center in Temecula, California. Her pastoral experience is a lifelong passion. It began as a catechist at her parish community in Costa Mesa, California, where she held the position of Coordinator of Children Religious Education (Spanish) and then the position of Family Life Director.

At the diocesan level she held the position of Associate Director of Religious Education for five years, then was the Director of the Office of Hispanic Ministry for four years, and finally the Director of the Institute for Pastoral Ministry for eleven years.

A native of Jalisco, Mexico, Olivia is the oldest of nine siblings, a wife, a mother of three, a grandmother of six, and a very proud alum of LMU.
